

Two-day training program for members of the District Bar Association, Hyderabad

Sindh Judicial Academy (SJA) in collaboration with District Bar Association, Hyderabad and High Court Bar Association, Hyderabad arranged a two-day training program for practicing advocates with years stand at Bar. The President, District Bar Association, Hyderabad welcomed to the team Sindh Judicial Academy. He also appreciated initiative of the Hon'ble Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Ahmed Ali M. Sheikh for approving the idea of the SJA to arrange training programs at district level for junior practicing advocates. He also welcomed the members of the Bar for participating in the program. He highlighted importance of continuous legal education. Traditional gifts were presented to Hon'ble Director General and team of SJA.

Mr. Imdad Ali Unar
President, District Bar Hyd.

Mr. Justice Syed Ali Aslam Jafri
Former Judge, High Court of Sindh
Consultant, SJA

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Syed Ali Aslam Jafri shared detail of two-day training program and specifically informed about the topics be discussed during the training. He informed that topics like code of conduct, court mannerism and law of injunction how to file plaint will be spoken by Mr. Justice Khilji Arif Hussain, Director General whereas Mr. Justice Ghulam Rabbani will share his views about Criminal Trial and Land Revenue Act and Mr. M. Shahid Shafiq will discuss family and how to find case law.

Mr. Justice Khilji Arif Hussain while discussing code of conduct and court mannerism explained that an advocate should reach court on time, sit in court room properly, dress formally, turn off mobile phone in court room, address to court respectfully and respect senior advocates, be cautious in body language, use plain English while addressing to court and do not speak out of context. He also discussed in detail attitude of advocate with his client. He advised to be fair with clients and always give reasonable legal advice based on the best of your knowledge. This would cause in developing strong professional relationship between advocate and the client.

Mr. Justice Ghulam Rabbani discussed in detail stages of criminal trial. He shared that the criminal trial followed in magisterial courts and the court of sessions is almost similar however sections 241 to 250 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1989 deal with the magisterial trial whereas section 265 of the Code deals with the procedure observed in sessions trial. He discussed each step of the trial. He also discussed a few important provisions of the Code.

Mr. Justice Rabbani also discussed Land Revenue Act in detail. It was shared that in civil cases one should have an idea of documentation normally prepared and maintained during course of transfer of a property. He explained the law relating to particular of agricultural land and exclusion of jurisdiction of civil court in certain matter while reforming to S.172 land revenue code.

Mr. Justice Syed Ali Aslam Jafri and Mr. Muhammad Shahid Shafiq discussed about the bail issues and qualities of a good advocate. They also discussed role of an accused while acting as commissioner by court order for site inspection, recording evidence and as receiver for administrating a moveable or immovable property. The trainees were also shared how to find but relevant case law from the law books and by using different databases maintained electronically and accessible through websites. It was informed that PLD publisher have developed a portal and statute and case law may be accessed from the site. There are many websites of India which are also useful and accessible without cost.

Concluding ceremony was graced by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Aziz-ur-

Rehman. Trainees were awarded certificates by the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Aziz-ur-Rehman and

Mr. Justice Khilji
Arif Hussain
Director General,
Sindh Judicial
Academy. Hon'ble
Director General
gave 'Shield of honor' to the

Hon'ble Chief Guest and to District Bar Association, Hyderabad and High Court Bar Association, Hyderabad for their cooperation for arranging the training program.

Plantation:

Group Photos with District Bar Association Hyderabad