

Honorable Justice (R) Dr. Ghous Muhammad Former Judge, High Court of Sindh, Advocate, Supreme Court of Pakistan Justice of peace (District Karachi East) Pakistan obtained LL.B. degree from Islamia Law College, KU in 1965; LL.M degree from Federal Government Urdu Law College, KU (1981-82) (Secured First Class First Position and was awarded Gold Medal);

Ph.D. in Law (Topic “Development of Constitutional Law in Pakistan through Judicial Decisions”) from KU in 1995. Joined the Legal profession as a Pleader, practiced in the subordinate Courts at Karachi in 1965; worked as full time Assistant Legal Advisor/Acting Legal Advisor, Karachi Metropolitan Corporation (1966-73); enrolled as advocate of Supreme Court of Pakistan and started practice in the Supreme Court and High Courts (2001 to date). President Conflicts Resolution Centre, Karachi (2003 to date); Legal Consultant Mott McDonald. Pak (Pvt.) Ltd in association with Nippon Koei (Japan) (2005-todate); Director Board of Directors of Noman Abid & Company Ltd. (Holding and Investment) Karachi (2006-todate);

Elevated Judge High Court of Sindh on 10-04-1995 and retired on 26-01-2000.

Remained as Director General, Sindh Judicial Academy from 13-06-2003 to 02-07-2007.

Appointed Member Board of Governors Sindh Judicial Academy Karachi. (2008-2010).

Publications:

Co-Editor alongwith Prof. Leslie Wolf-Philips of the London School of Economics of the Pakistan Chapter of “Constitutions of the Countries of the World” Edited by M/s Albert P. Blaustein & Gisbert G. Flanz, published by Oceana Publications, Inc. Dobbs Ferry, New York (1974-1982). Articles published on law, religion, psychology and environmental law in the Daily Dawn, Jung, Leader, Weekly Law Reports, All Pakistan Legal Decisions (P.L.D), P.L.J., S.B.L.R (2001-2002). Contributes column in weekly “Pakistan News” published from New York.

Awards:

Human Rights Groups of Pakistan (HRGP) awarded National Human Rights Award, 2000 in recognition of services for “Rule of Law” (2002)